

INDEX

- adolescence and body-correction, 119–32
    advertisement for poor, by Robert Stevens, 168
- ailments, related to sitting and eyestrain, 90
- American colonies, overseas market, 93
- anatomy, science of, 120
- Andry, Nicholas, 120
    on stays for posture, 126
    on swaddling clothes, 112
    on tightness of children's stays, 122
- Angier, Sarah, staymaker, Houndsditch, 76, 79
    Rag Fair, East End of London, 92
- apprentice staymakers, 83
    mainly boys, 23
- armour-like fronts of stays, whalebone, 185
- artisans in clothing trade role in taste formation, 5
- baleen (baleine) business, 12, 60
- basting and ruling of cloth, 56–7
- Baudouin, La Toilette, 200
- Baylis, Thomas, bodice-maker, 163 bespoke stays, 145–6
    inventory of goods, 25, 77
    probate inventory, 1720, 91
    success of, 94
- bespoke and ready-made markets 143–5, 158, 160–2
- Billers, Sir William
    Lord Mayor of the City of London, 59
- billheads
    aim to attract rich, 143–4
    for doctors, on stays for the lame, 124–5
    James Lane, 124
    William Brown, 1734, Southwark, 19
- bodicemakers
    Edward Calfe, St Giles, Cripplegate, 18, 67
    Thomas Wilcocks, St Giles in the Fields, 67
- bodices, worn by poorer women, 25
- bodily form changes and health, 3, 4
- Body Beautiful, 6
- body correction instruments, 19, 125, 131
    Holmes & Laurie, 128–9
- body culture in eighteenth century, 45
- body imperfection, view of,
    presumed need for stays, 138
- body self-image, perceptions of, 191–5
- body shape creation by stays, 4, 6, 97–8, 195
- body-shaping for fashion, 157
- Bone and Leather Stay Warehouse, 163–4
- 'The Bone Shop', London, baleen business, 8
- Bone shop, Billers and Poston, 59
- boning of stays, 57
- Bonnet, Le Tailleur (1750), 200
- The Book of Trades* 15, 24, 213
- Ladies Dressmaker, 183
- breast-feeding of infants,
    problems from stays, 107, 108
- breasts
    area roundness, 206
    cancer risk from constrictive stays, 108 enhancement by stays, 210
    fullness exposure, 38
- breaching of boys, 117
- bridges of London, for transport, 65
- Brown, William, Staymaker, 19
- business partnerships of staymakers, 79
- business women, appropriate conduct, 24
- busks

- description of, 33
- eighteenth century, Churchill House Museum, 34
- Byles, Reverend Dr Mather
on breeching of his son, 117
- Cadogan, Dr, of Foundling Hospital, 114
Essay Upon Nursing, 113 against swaddling of infants, 112–13
- Campbell, R.
The London Tradesman, 13–15
on mantua-maker and woman's body, 123 on shapeliness through staymaker, 123
on staymakers' body forming, 96–7
- charitable societies, 174
- childbed-linen provision, 111
- childbirth and stays-wearing, 95–6, 174
- child's coat design, made by women, 27
- child's stays, 1780–1800
scale drawing, 130
- City of London business district, 78
- Cleland, John
Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure, 49, 203–4
- client and dressmaker, 197
- clothes making for poor children instruction books on, 174–5
- clothing manufacture industry in London, 6
- clothing theft from child
Jane Simms, 174
- Colley, John
trial for theft, 1798, 79, 88–9
- Collyer, J.
The Parent and Guardian's Directory 15
on bodicemaking, 26–7
on buckram as stiffener, 56
on fine-drawing, 81
on packthread spinner, 59
- Colonel Williamsburg Foundation
well-worn pair of stays, 54
- competitive market of staymaking, 159–60
- cone-like silhouettes, 30
- corrective stays, 119, 132
- corset (1805–15), 45
Corsets and Crinolines, by N. Waugh, 13
- creation of garments
cause of conflict between males and females, 12
- culture in London, 65
- curvature of the spine, 131
- customer satisfaction promise, 160
- dancing master, payment for, 147–9
- danger of stay-fitting for children, 122
- Dashwood, Sir Francis
Knights of St Francis club, 200
- deformity
concealment of, with stays, 96
prevention by staymakers' skills, 131
- Dennel, A. F. (after P. A.Wille), 1780, La Toilette, 200
- Dent, John, staymaker in Soho house renting, 70
- design of stays, change in 1780s, 138
- Devonshire, Duchess of on discomfort of stays, 185–6
positive self-image, 193
- Dingler, George
murder of wife by stabbing, 99
- doublets and stays, similarities, 182
- Downing, Robert, staymaker trial for stealing cloth coat, 74
- drapers
Coleman, Mary, 74
- Dennis, Mary, 73–4, 92, 163, 168
ready-made stays, 74, 162
- Dress and Corset Maker, Mrs Mortimer, 20
- dress, and gender identity, 179
- dress for gentlewomen empowerment and disenfranchisement, 181
- Dressers, Millinery & Laces Warehouse, 163
- Duke of Clarence and Dorothy Jordan, 209
- Dupin (after Le Clerc)
Tailleur Costumier Essayant un Cor à la mode (1778), 200
- Ede & Ravenscroft robe-makers
business records, 72
- elite society ladies, comments on looks, 191–3
- English and French fashion
Lennox, Lady Sarah, 151–2, 192, 248, 253, 265
O'Brien, Lady Susan, 151–2, 190–3, 263, 267

- entertainment in London, 65
 erotic nature of stays, 199–212
 expenditure account, Miss Goreings, 146–9 eyelet holes, 58
 eyesight, poor, from staymaking, 89
- fabric, diaphanous, 207
 fashion, importance of, in eighteenth century, 151, 191, 216
 fashionable clothing for men, 182, 184
 Favell, Michael, staymaker, Leicester Square, 74 stays stolen from, 171
 female body, seen as flawed, 8, 97
 female client and male tradesman, relationship, 153 female clothing, 2
   creation of, as contested arena, 12
 female fashion in London season importance to women, 60–1
 female influence on stays' design, 186 female staymakers, 3
   leading role as sensual beings, 212
   'feminization of fashion', 181
   'feminization' of stays, 186 change of shape for breasts, 207 financial independence for women, 24
 fire insurance policies reveal females as staymakers, 189 Fithian, Philip,
   diary comments on stays-wearing, 133
 Fitzjohn, Catherine, theft of clothing, 198
 Flamand, Hector, Journeyman Staymaker, 86
 Fleming, Elizabeth, mantua-maker, 87
 Flude, John, Pawnbroker, billhead, 169–70, 172
 Freke, Elizabeth, inventory of goods, 135–6
 French stays, 152–3
- Gainsborough, Thomas
   Georgiana, Duchess of Devonshire, 1785–8, 205–6
   Mary, Countess Howe, 1760, 205
 Garsault, FranVois Alexandre de
   Art du Tailleur, 11–12
   description of English stays, 36–8
   on maternity stays, 100
   stays for boys, 116
- gender and class relations, 220
 influence on stays' design, 179 relations of bespoke male staymakers and female consumers, 154
 George, Hannah, staymaker, 88, 92
 Gibbon, Mrs Lloyd
   Treatise on the Use and Effect of Anatomical Stays, 120 awareness of eroticism of stays, 210 child's fainting, 122
   constrictive stays, 108
   health improvement with new stays, 187–8 patent for stays (1800), 109, 188 stays as bodily distortion correctors, 123
   womb, pressure on, from stays, 109
 Gillray, James, caricaturist
   The Devil to Pay (1791), 209
   Female Curiosity (1778), 208
   The Liberty of the Subject (1779), 208
   The Morning after Marriage (1788), 208
   Goreings, Miss, accounts, 145–50
 Gray, Thomas
   on moulding men's bodies with clothes, 182
 Grearson, George, journeyman staymaker, 71
 gussets at hips and breasts, 7, 186–7, 191
- Hatton, John, haberdasher, 79, 81
   multipurpose dwelling, Oxford Street, 76
 Hayman, Francis
   Le Moine entreprenant (The Lecherous Monk), 200–1
   Margaret Tyres and Her Husband George Rogers, 1750–2, 205 health concerns, effect of stays, 8 staymaking work by candlelight, 89
 high-waisted gowns, 190
 hip tabs, 131, 180
 Hobsbawn, Eric, on shoemakers, 154
 Hogarth, William
   After, 202
   The Analysis of Beauty, 180, 203
   Before, 202
   'line of beauty', cut of stays, 38, 50, 180, 206

- Marriage à la Mode*, 202
The Rake's Progress, 202 satire on upper-class dress, 98
 'serpentine line', 5, 180
 stays as garments of reduction, 202, 203
 'The Staymaker' sketch, Happy Marriage series, 158
Taste in High Life, engraving, 98
The Wedding of Stephen Beckingham and Mary Cox 1729–30, 205
- Holme, Randle
The Academy of Armoury, 1688, 12–13, 14, 23, 25
 description of busk, 33
 description of stays, 29
- Holmes & Laurie, London steel bodice- and truss-makers, 19
- billheads for medical purposes, 128
- House of Call, for journeymen staymakers, 83
- idiopathic scoliosis, 128
- infancy and childhood, stays in, 111–19
- infant's stays, eighteenth century, 114
- scale drawing, 115
- Jordan, Dorothy, actress, 209
- journeymen staymakers, 71, 83
- jumps
 late eighteenth century, 105
 scale drawing, 106
 Viney's wife, 104, 105
- Keen, Rachel, poor woman robbed by Ann Fell, 137–8
- Kendall, Anne
 violent attack by George Mason, 136–7
- Kuchta, David
 on 'nonfunctional immobility' with stays, 181
- labour division in staymaking trade, 24
- Ladies' Dress Maker
 1805 Book of Trades, 196–7
 engraving (1805), 183
Ladies Economical Assistant (1808) for cheap clothing, 166, 167
 ladies' instructions to staymakers, 196
- Lancashire gentlewomen in eighteenth century, 154
- Lane, James
 orthopaedic instruments 124–5, 128
 stays to prevent crookedness, 125
 steel or belt trusses, billhead, 124–6, 128
- Latter, Thomas, bespoke and ready-made, 162
- Le Clerc
Tailleur Costumier Essayant un Cor à la Mode, 1778, 200
- Leach, Elizabeth
 stays from pawn shop, careful choice, 197
- leather stays, Worthing Museum & Art Gallery 51, 52
 scale drawing, 53
 sign of poverty, 177
- Lejeune, Arnoldus, staymaker business in rich area, 70
- Leonard, John and Jane, theft accusation, 87
- lightweight fabrics, 186
- line* and form of stays, 180
- London East End staymakers, 78
- London season, staymaking as seasonal work, 87
- 'loose woman' 211
- lower classes and poor, 9–10, 165–77
- male and female stay-makers, 217
- male customers' reliance on tailor for fashion, 184
- male staymakers
 and clients, 2
 erotic designing, 199
 male design of stays, 181
- mantua-makers
 female, 14, 15, 24, 184–5
 Joanna Clarke, 87
- mantua wearing, 26
- map key to Figure 2.1.
 location of staymakers in London, 80, 223
- Marchmount, Countess of, 73
 bill for garments, 72
 client of William and Mary Shuddall, 145
- Marsden, William
 theft of stays from, 85–6, 87

- Marston, William, staymaker theft by John Wild, 77–8, 84
 masculine form of stays linear and angular, 180
 masculinization and feminization of female form
 by male staymakers, 4, 180, 185
 master staymakers
 top of hierarchy, 82
 maternity stays
 1760–80, 100, 101
 1800–10, 110
 medical practitioners
 sanction of Truss-Makers, 126
 middle classes, 164
 ready-made stays, 160, 162
 Miller, Elizabeth, staymaker, 116
 Mills, Philip, taylor (1724)
 inventory of goods, 16
 ‘Probate Inventory’, 146
 miscarriage as result of stays-wearing, 107 Moravian brethren
 religious revival, 21–2
 Viney, Richard, Staymaker, as member, 156
 moulding of men’s bodies, by tailors, 184
 multipurpose dwellings for staymakers, 76 murder of Ann Pooley, 167
 murder of infant for his stays
 by Susan Perry, 116, 174
 Napoleonic Wars
 employment of women and children, 20
 National Museum of American History linen stays, 119, 120
 scale drawing, 121
 Newport, Eleanor, staymaker, 73
 jumps to Mary Smith, 170
 Rag Fair, East End of London, 92
 ‘Obscene Prints’, Print Shops in London, 201
 Old Bailey Proceedings, 19
 theft of ‘bodices’, 142
 theft of clothes and stays, 165
 trial dialogue, 219–20
 trial testimonies, 7
 orthopaedic body garments, 124–5, 128, 131
 Packer, Isaac, 163
 inventory of goods, 77
 probate inventory (1734), 91–2
 street fairs, 164
 packthread, 27, 59
 Paine, Thomas, staymaking apprentice, 63
 Parry, Richard, taylor, 77
 inventory of goods, 16
 Patmore, William, journeyman 77, 83
 fall off working board, 90–91
 poor staymaker, 68–9
 trial for murder of wife, 89
 pattern designing for stays, 86 pattern theft, 85–6
 pawnbrokers
 in competition with clothing dealers, 173
 as receivers of stolen goods, 170–3 pawnshops as markets for stays, 169 personal relationships with staymakers, 157
 physical problems
 from tight lacing of stays in pregnancy, 107
 Place, Francis, master tailor, 63, 83
 on loose-lacing, 134–5
 policies for staymakers, 19
 Ponce, M. (after Baudouin)
La Toilette, 1771, 200
 population of London, 64
 pornography
Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure (Cleland), 203
 post partum problem
 prolapsed uterus, 108
 Poston, William, Haberdasher, 59
 ‘pouter pigeon’ silhouette, neoclassical dress, 190 poverty among staymakers, 69, 156
 Pownall, John, staymaker, 79
 Hanover Square, London, 70
 pregnancy and stays, 100–10
 Prince of Wales and Mrs Fitzherbert, 208
 print collecting in London, 201–2 Pritchard’s
 bespoke stays, female garments, 71–2
 Pritchards’ Warehouse, Mrs Dodd, rich client, 144–5
 probate inventories as sources, 18, 81
 physicality of working space, 77

- profession or trade choice
 tailoring or staymaking, 15
- prostitutes, Mary Ford and Charlotte
 Hughes, theft by, 194
- Pullein, John, staymaker, Smithfield stolen handkerchiefs, 76, 81
- Quincey, John, staymaker and warehouse labourer, 87
- Rag Fair, East End of London, 92
- rape case at Old Bailey, 193–4
- raw materials of stays trade, 54
- ready-made markets, 158, 163
 bespoke, second-hand, 3, 161
- retail businesses, 66, 81
- Revolutionary wars
 employment of women and children, 20
- Reynolds, Sir Joshua
Selina, Lady Skipwith (1787), 205, 206
- riding habits for women, 20
- makers, 81
- Riello, Giorgio, on shoemakers, 154
- robe-makers, 81
- Roberts, Thomas, staymaker, 70
 theft of bespoke stays from his shop, 145, 170–1
- Rocque, John
 grid of London with staymakers (1747), 80
 plan of Southwark and Westminster, 78
- Romney, George
Adam Walker and His Family (1796– 1801), 207
- room renting by staymakers, 74
- Rowlandson, Thomas, comic artist, 208
Damp Sheets, 209
A Little Tigbter, 209
Modern Antiques, 209
The Sculptor (Nollekins) (1800), 209
- Rudderford, Henry, trade card, 93
- Rudderforth's billheads c. (1805–15), 152, 159
- rural fairs for selling, 164
- scoliosis, 131
- sculpting, ingenious
 whalebone, fabric, buckram, card, paste, 59, 214
- sculpture of female body, 2
- S-curve, 'line of beauty' 207
- Seamster, description, 13
 female takeover for simple garments, 21
- seamstresses, rights winning, 12
- second-hand clothes dealers, sales to, 174
- second-hand stays, 168
- seductive and erotic image of stays, 10, 200–1, 217
- self-image of women in stays, 193, 194–5, 217
- separation of the breasts, 208
- sexual awareness, ladies dressing, 200
- sexuality and clothing, 3
- Shackleton, Elizabeth
 stay wearing in late age, 136
- shape of female body in stays
 cone-like and rigid, 30, 205
- 'share of taste'
 client and dressmaker, 197
- shoes, consumption and materiality, 154
- shopping as leisure pursuit, 66
- Shuddall, William and Mary Customers' Ledger, 72–3
 ready-made stays, 92
- Siscotti Stay and Fancy Corset maker, 163
- size range of stays
 ready-made markets, 92
- Smith, Mary, arrest for jump pawning, 73, 170
- social history, lives of poor, voices for women, 220
- social norm of stays wearing, 141, 198
- social status, Miss Goreings, 149
- Soemmerring, S. T., Engraving, 1793, 127
- spine curvature, Nicholas Andry, 126
- Stansfield, James, 84
 helping Richard Viney, 71
- Starzaker, William, staymaker, 79, 81
- multipurpose dwelling, Strand, 76
- Stay and Habit Maker, Fredrick Albrecht of Bath
 promoting women as staymakers, 188–9
- stays wearing for corrective reasons for children, 215
- staymaker, Thomas Roberts
 theft and pawning of stays, 67–8

- staymakers
 arbiters of taste in fashion, 153
 body-shapers, 139, 157
 concentrations of, 79
 delivery to clients, 150–1
 establishments, grid location, London 80 important branch of tailoring, 5 interaction with, 198
 male until 1780, 18
 skills and expertise, 214
 trade in London, 7, 63, 67, 70, 214–15, 218
- staymaking shops, home and business, 75–6
- staymaking tailor and client relationship implications, 5
- staymaking tailors, 213
- staymaking trade
 division of labour, 8
 gender roles, effect on female body, 3
 importance of, 11
- seasonal work, diversification as key to success, 93
- stays
 1700–10, Castle Howard, 26
 scale drawing, 31
 bodice (1730–2), Gallery of Costume, Manchester, 117
 scale drawing, 118
 1735–50, Museum of London, 32
 scale drawing, 35
 1760–80, Gallery of Costume, Manchester, 36
 scale drawing, 37
 1760–80, Fredericksburg, Virginia, 46, 47
 CT scan, 48
 X-ray, 47
 1760–80, Victoria & Albert Museum, London, 55
 1775–85, Hereford and Worcester County Museum, 50
 scale drawing, 51
 1770–85, Smithsonian Institution, Washington DC, 120
 scale drawing, 121
 1775–85, Worthing Museum & Art Gallery, 38
 scale drawing, 39
 1780–1800, Worthing Museum & Art Gallery, 129
 scale drawing, 130
 1780–90, Churchill House Museum, Hereford, 40
 1790–1805, Victoria & Albert Museum, London, 41
 scale model, 42
 1795–1810, Churchill House Museum, Hereford, 43
 scale drawing, 44
 body armour, 99
 creation of, 2
 dual role, seduction and respectability, 138, 203, 211 effect on unborn child, 100, 111
 formative years' assumed health reasons, 139 identity and self image, 1 importance in fashion, 143
 for infants and children, 9, 113–14
 lighter construction, 39
 in love scenes, 209
 for mature adults, 133, 136
 Miss Goerings's accounts, 149–50 objects of propriety, 205
 for poor women, fashionability, 49 procurement of, for poor 216
 as protection from blows, 137
 ready-made 94
 removal as preparation for lovemaking, 203 representation in art, 199–200 rigidity and shapelessness, 28
 seductive and erotic, 199, 206–207 separate garments, 26
 targets of thieves, from homes, shops, 142
 tight-laced or loose, 134
 unlacing as seductive, 204
- stays and bodices, difference, 25
- stays and outer bodice as one, 29–30
- stealing charge against staymakers, 88
- steel bodices, 129
- steel or belt trusses, billhead, 124–6, 128
- steel stays, to prevent crooked body in children, 124

- Stelfox, William, staymaker combination business, 81
 theft problem, 87
- stiffening devices in men's clothes, 184
- stigmatisation of poor, 178
- Stiles, Thomas, staymaker, 79
 Hanover Square, London, 70
- Stitchers' employment, 84
- stomachers, 3, 32–3
- post-partum, 104
- and stays, 164
- strait-lacing, 134
- Strange Stay Maker
 bespoke and ready-made, 160–61
- SunFire Offices Insurance Registers
 policies for staymakers, 19
- swaddling of infants
 in Aristotle's Compleat and Experience'd Midwife, 111–12
 from fear of deformity, 112
 leading to stays wearing, 112
- Syfret' Stay Warehouse
 guarantees fitting, 159–60
- Sykes, George
 advertisement for poor, 168
- tailor-designed men's garments
 influence on women's stays, 182
- tailoring and staymaking, 15, 60–61
 as one and the same, 1688, 14
 separation, 11
- Tailors and Mantua makers latter as female, 13
- tailors, work of, 213
- taste and perceptions of beauty, 197
- textile and dress history, 220
- The Taylor's Complete Guide*
 riding habits for women, 195–6
- theft
 by the poor, 165
 of clothing in eighteenth century, 142
 and pawning of stays, 172
 second-hand markets, 174
 from staymakers, 86–7
- Todd, John, staymaker, on House of Call, 83
- town and country links, 66
- trade cards of staymakers, 18
- trade directories, London
 addresses of Taylors and Staymakers, London, 18
 staymakers survey, 1677, 17
- trading-in stays, 159
- trial proceedings,
 for personal information, 194
- trial records
 forceful removal of stays from child, 143
- trusses, 131–2
- Truss-Makers
 irons for relief of lame, 126
- tuberculosis, cancer and scoliosis stays as cause, 128
- Tutt, William Staymaker
 Sarah Simpson, stitcher, 85
- urbanization
 of English towns, 64
 of London, 18th century, 64
- Van Aken, Joseph
A Musical party on a Terrace 1725, 205
- victimization of older, poor women, 137
- Victoria & Albert Museum
 pair of unlined stays, 54–5, 58
- Viney, Richard, Staymaker, 70–71
 betrayal by Stansfield, 84
 breast of wife, lancing, 102–3 client Ann Gee, 168–9
 diary of his work, 1744, 7–8, 21–2, 213, 221
 comments on stays-wearing, 218–19
 details of trade staymaking, 218
 financial situation, 69–71 relations 219
 rich source for rural worker, 221
 health problems of wife and self, 89–90, 107
 illness of baby son, 103–4
 living quarters, 74–6
 ready-made stays, 176
 relationship with clients, 154–7
 on rules and order in life, 82
 setting up shopboard, 177
 stay-making, 56–8
 stays for children, 176
 tailor in London first, 221

- wife's childbirth and breast problems, 95, 101–8
work situation, 88
- Von Soemmerring, Samuel Thomas
anatomist and pathologist, 128
- waist length changes, 30
- Waller, T.
Book of Trades (1805), 97–8
A General Description of all Trades, 13, 15
on bodicemaking, 26
on buckram stiffeners, 1747, 56
- Washington, Martha
on her stays-wearing, 133–4
- wearing of stays, boys, girls, women, 2, 4
- well-dressed and poor
cause of suspicion, 166
- Whalebone and Rattan trade, London, 59
- whalebone, use of, 12, 27, 58, 60
- White, Jane and Mary
staymakers for pregnancy, 19–20
- Wilcocks, Thomas
St Giles in the Fields, bodicemaker, 18
- Wild, John, foreman to William Marston side business, 85
- theft of stays, 84
- Wille, P. A.
L'Essai du Corset, (A. F. Denzel) (1780), 200
- Wilson, Stephen, staymaker
theft problem, 76, 87
- womb, pressure on, from stays, 108
- women of elite, 143
- women, role of, in history, 220
- Women Stay-Makers, 19
- women's bodies
flawed in natural state, 216
- working-boards, 77
- working hours, long for staymaking, 88
- Worthing Museum and Art Gallery
child's stays 1780–1800, 131
- Wright, Charles, staymaker, and bankruptcy, 88
- Wright, Gilbert, journeyman staymaker trial for assault, 83
- X-ray of stays (1760–80), 47
- X-rays of stays in research, 7
- yellow stomacher, Ann Pooley, 167
- Young, Alfred, on shoemakers, 154