

'Come, my dear girl, let's seek the peaceful vale'	5: 58
'Constant gamesters! every day'	3: 88
'Corinna, in the country bred'	1: 11
'Corinna, virtue's child, and chaste'	1: 16
'Cursed by the friends of liberty restored'	3: 34
'Custom, alas! does partial prove'	2: 52
'Dark was the sky with many a cloud'	3: 144
'Dear Jenny, to confess my mind'	6: 54
'Dear Sir, / Having found with surprise, that my late resignation'	1: 40
'Deluded men, these holds forego'	2: 48
'Down dropt her brush; the dish-clout thrown / aside'	4: 41
'Escap'd a race whose vanity ne'er rais'd'	6: 19
'Estate and honours! – mere caprich!'	4: 34
'Fame's mouth is steep, and he who dares as- / cend'	3: 35
'Far in desart wild, where, loud and strong'	5: 156
'First martyr of unlawful power!'	5: 55
'Forgive, my lord, an homely muse'	1: 118
'Four Scotchmen, by the names of Adams'	4: 196
'From slavish, mean dependancen rais'd'	6: 31
'Full well by lerned clerkis it is fed'	5: 152
'Garrick, I've read your Fool's Petition '	5: 90
'Go Truth, old-fashion'd guest'	4: 44
'Go, truth, unwelcome guest!'	3: 125
'God prosper long our noble king'	3: 55
'Great Sir, for wisdom fam'd as beer'	5: 50
'Had paving London streets in taste'	2: 12
'Hail, beauteous pair, who friendship / binds'	3: 142
'Hail black November, in whose foggy rear'	1: 64
'Hail! tricking monarch, more successful far'	2: 74
'Happy the man who with such ease'	4: 131
'Have ye never seen a net'	2: 44
'Having heard that your doggrel's in mighty renown'	1: 101
'Here dead to fame lies patriot Will'	2: 17
'Here / Rests at last / From all his sanguinary Desires'	4: 65
'His E—y the L— L— of I— is said'	1: 122
'His Lordship being informed, that a lady'	3: 86
'His M—y in a child's frock and bib, fol- / lowed'	4: 47
'How awful the morning breaks over yon / hill'	3: 70
'How each fond parent still pursues'	4: 153
'How have I heard the Fair lament'	6: 72
'How vain are all the joys of man'	4: 105

'How vain are guards when guilty fear'	2: 9
'How vain are hopes! How changeable is man!'	1: 77
'I Believe in K. G. II, the greatest captain and'	3: 135
'I hold for faith What England's church allows'	1: 122
'I Rise about nine, get to breakfast by ten'	5: 86
'I Whom thou see'st begirt with towering oaks'	3: 130
'If bees a government maintain'	2: 14
'If e'er I quit the single life'	6: 14
'If e'er I wed, my wife shall not be old'	2: 51
'If signing with the twelve, to heaven'	4: 59
'I'll list for a soldier, says Robin to Sue'	2: 12
'In a fair summer's radiant morn'	6: 21
'In Aesop's famous world of wit'	6: 11
'In antient times the Roman laws decreed'	1: 31
'In Charles's time the ducks were fav'rites made'	5: 152
'In former days I've heard it said'	3: 156
'In me, false Thais, as you pass'	6: 42
'In Scotland once a king they had'	2: 106
'In the fever of youth ev'ry pulse in a flame'	4: 90
'In times like these, when party rage'	3: 161
'In vain, poor sable son of woe'	4: 69
'It happen'd in a healthful year'	2: 34
'L. R. Good morning, dear cousin, pray how'	2: 34
'Ladies, whose dress, wit, sprightliness, and air'	2: 50
'Lead up, join hands'	2: 12
'Let dull politicians eternally prate'	6: 51
'Little Moll, faith, and I from Wapping / came up'	3: 48
'Long have the men triumphant reign'd'	4: 70
'Long on Golconda's shore a diamond lay'	3: 127
'Look round this vast, and venerable place'	2: 57
'Mass-houses, churches, mixt together'	2: 49
'May ye never play in tune'	6: 32
'[Gent.] Mr. Painter, you joke'	4: 49
'Much wonderous goode dothe founte dispense'	1: 121
'My Lord, / A Thousand thanks to your lordship for your'	1: 35
'My Lord! Great commoner no more'	1: 97
'My lord, your verses, penn'd with so much / ease'	3: 82
'Nature, when she form'd a man'	6: 84
'Near London Bridge once stood a gate'	3: 87
'Ne'er yet in vain did heav'n its omens send'	1: 33
'Newcastle dead! Confusion seize'	5: 140